Dear Mr Woodward

RNIB Response to “Core Receiver Requirements consultation document”

Thank you very much for the opportunity to comment on this consultation document.

RNIB strongly supports the specification as outlined in the consultation document and commends DCMS, DTI and the BBC for the work they have done to bring all the requirements into one easily understandable document. We consider the provision of equipment that completely meets the specification to be an absolutely essential requirement for the targeted help scheme.

I have also written to your colleague Margaret Hodge MP, Minister of State for Industry and the Regions, expressing my support for this specification.

Yours sincerely

Lesley-Anne Alexander

Chief Executive
